Week 45: Fall Mission Feeding

James and Betty Robison

JAMES: It is an understatement to say these are very important times. Betty, we are living in an age of deception.

BETTY: Yes.

JAMES: And the father of lies is Satan. But one of the things people don't realize is that the liar has millions of angelic servants, demonic angels, anything but angels in our sight. They are deceivers like the father of lies.

I have a guest today who discovered what I discovered years ago; maybe we discovered it about the same time. Maybe he is a little bit behind. But he also had heard of Milton Green who prayed for me for deliverance, Betty, that we didn't even as very dedicated Baptists seem to think about demons or talk about them, although we were afraid we were going to scare them or they'd bother us. If we didn't talk about them, maybe they wouldn't bother us. But they bother us. They are deceiving spirits.

Well, I have a guess that did find the truth about Setting Captives Free from demonic power. His name is Jake Kail. Jake, we're glad to have you here.

JAKE: James, Betty, thanks so much. It's great to be here. It is an honor.

JAMES: You did not have much time to think about demons. You said you went to a church that believed that even the gifts of the spirit and many of the miraculous things that the church did in the New Testament had sort of passed away. Cessation is the word; they don't do it anymore. Okay, what happened to you?

JAKE: I grew up in a great Christian family. My parents got saved when I was about two years old. Went to a great church, a Bible-believing church, but did not believe, like you said, in the gifts of the Holy Spirit to where healing or deliverance wasn't at all part of my upbringing. So for me, I always considered myself a believer but when I was in the sixth grade I got exposed to pornography, and then I got drawn into drinking, and the party lifestyle, all that type of thing. All the while saying yeah, I'm a Christian, going to church, but not just living it. Not understanding the true power of the gospel to walk in freedom and transformation.

So I was kind of living my life this way; kind of a nominal believer. When I went to college it kind of got worse because then my parents weren't watching over me. So I went right into the party lifestyle; just drinking, getting drunk, sexual sin, but then going to Bible study on Thursday nights. And not even thinking anything of it because I was deceived, like you said. That's the nature of sin, that's the nature of the enemy, he is very deceptive. And so, going to church, going to Bible study but living just like the world.

Then it all came to a head. At the end of my freshman year, I was at this retreat with a campus ministry. That's when the Holy Spirit began to convict me and draw me to this place of deep repentance where I just began to see my sin for what it was and drew me to this place of true surrender, and just encountered the love of God, encountered deep repentance. But also, through this encounter, was radically set free. There are bondages in my life, lust, immorality, drinking, and even anger issues, God just completely broke the chains in that encounter.

JAMES: And how did you connect that to demonic activity in your life?

JAKE: Well, the thing was at the time I didn't know to connect it. Because in my mind I was well, this is what God does when people come to know him in repentance. I didn't at that point understand the demonic side of it. But then God began to lead me on this journey. I was hungry. I began to devour the scriptures. I began to read the gospels. I read these stories and I see Jesus casting out demons and I'm like, ah, I've never seen this before. How come I've never seen this? I've been going to church.

And then God began to open my eyes. It actually started with a dream I had. I had this very vivid dream and I was actually in a buffet, an all-you-can-eat buffet and there was a demonized person who came up to me in the dream. I felt the power of God just well up in me and I began to command the demon to come out. This guy got delivered! I woke up and I was startled. I was like, whoa! What was that about? I was afraid. What if I have to do this in real life? What if I meet this person? Because I had no understanding of this because of my background.

But then God began to teach me through his word, through scriptures, through some resources I came across and he began to show me how relevant this whole area of deliverance is. And how it is pretty common for people to need deliverance from demonic influence; and kind of thrust me into it from there.

JAMES: I think people don't realize that Satan is one person, one place at a time. But he has millions of these angelic spirits, these demonic spirits, and they are deceiving spirits. One of the most profound things that Milt Green said to me and he prayed for me. Just asked me to sit down and prayed for me because he said, "I think you're the most tormented person I've ever followed, for several years as a very well-known preacher, but you're tormented and I feel sorry for you. I've been praying for you for years and I'd like you to let me pray for you." He started praying for me in the Holiday Inn room. But he was talking to the devil. He was telling all kinds of spirits to get out of here and I'm thinking, dear God, I'm in the room with Milton, he's talking to the devil and I'm the only one here. People are going to think I'm crazy.

But when he got through he said, "Well, how do you feel?" I said, "Great." I wanted to say, "Now that you've quit praying." But I was puzzled by it. But he had commanded spirits to loose me and he called them by name like lust, you addressed that a moment ago. And there were so many things he called out. I had told Betty that I was so tormented with lust and distraction and let's say unhealthy attractions to things that became a distraction that were damaging. I actually prayed -- I was so tormented that you'd pray I'd die in my sleep. It was like there's a grip on my brain.

This is maybe a week or so later, I wake up early in the morning and I'm crying. Betty says, "Honey, what's wrong?" I said, "Betty, it's gone! It's gone!" She said, "What?" I said, "That claw in my brain is gone." I realized that God heard Milt and those spirits released me. Milt had commanded them to turn me loose and they did. Immediately, I became interested. So I started learning and sharing. And I began to see thousands and thousands of people set free. It was an amazing thing.

Now I believe the church, as our country, is deeply deceived. I believe these demonic spirits are deceiving people. One of the most powerful sentences that Milt said to me, and to everybody he talked to, he said, "Your thoughts, many of your thoughts are not your own." In other words, they are being put there. They are suggestions from the deceiver and the deceiving spirits. Do you bear witness with that?

JAKE: Absolutely.

JAMES: Is that not what they do?

JAKE: Absolutely! Jesus said you'll know the truth and the truth will make you free. And so if the truth sets you free then lies and deceptions keep you in bondage. You can even see it with Judas when he betrayed Jesus. It actually says the devil put it into the mind, or into the heart of Judas to betray him. So even that thought, even that desire or that thought to betray Jesus, the devil himself planted it in his heart.

So yeah, not every thought that we have is our own. Sometimes people are battling with thoughts that they think are just their own thoughts. Maybe it is tormenting fears. Maybe it is lust. Maybe it's anger. Maybe it's bitterness.

JAMES: Unforgiveness.

JAKE: Absolutely! Obviously, we still have the flesh. We still have to overcome the flesh and walk in the spirit. But not every thought we have is our own. Absolutely true.

BETTY: A lot of times too, I think this is a ploy of the enemy, he wants to keep you deceived in the fact that you don't know what is coming at you. You don't know what is causing it or who is causing it. Because I was a good little Baptist. But I was covered in fear, and so it kept me from serving him and loving him, and doing what he had for my life because I was just eaten up with it. Didn't want to look to the right or to the left. Didn't know what to do. So I just wanted to be still and be quiet and maybe whoever wouldn't notice.

I could see all the trouble that James felt in his heart. I didn't know how to help him. So we need to identify who is coming after us.

JAKE: That's right! I found that many people are struggling with issues whether it is torments, oppressions, or bondages, and they just think they are going to live that way the rest of their lives. They think it is just who they are. They think it is their personality. Maybe they grew up that way and it was part of their family culture and they don't even realize what they're battling is demonic influence and evil spirits.

JAMES: I think that's because we don't understand. You don't have to go through some kind of strange, let's say approach to getting rid of demons. I remember I had dogs chasing my car every time I would leave a place and they would chase me all the way out to the gate, to the road. I just got so tired of it that I slammed on the brakes, and threw the door open, hoping one of the dogs would bang into it, you know, to stop him. And then I through the door open and I said, "Stop it! Get out of here!" God said, "You speak to the enemy like that and he'll stop it. You resist him, you rebuke him and he will listen." I found out you can command the enemy. We don't have to make this something spooky. We don't have to make it something we're afraid to talk about or we wouldn't want to get into.

That is what Milt helped me, and that's what I see you doing in what you're sharing. You can command. We as believers can get together, you could ask a friend, would you please take authority over this tormenting spirit? It is a spirit. You need to recognize these are tormenting angels. They are not angels, they're spirits that have fallen, demonic angels that went with Satan, a third of the host of heaven, and you can command them. You can order them. We can come together in agreement.

I prayed for thousands of people who would come forward who have been carrying burdens all their life and I would speak to those spirits and you would hear sometimes, people would cry out or even drop to the floor when it released them. You could see the manifestations.

Jesus doesn't necessarily let a demon manifest. I have found that they manifest most often when they've got a host of people who don't want to believe in demons. When all of a sudden they'll get to manifest to show you that this is not just some kind of foolish thing that the Christians are trying to do. This is what I told you to do. I tell you, command them, command the evil spirits, you can take authority over them.

To me, this is what you're sharing. What do you want Christians to hear? What do you want people to hear and listen even now as we're sharing?

JAKE: I believe we're in a time where the need for the ministry of deliverance is greater than it's ever been in this nation. I want people to know that yes, yes, the devil is real. Yes, demonic influence is real. But Jesus is still the deliverer. He came to set captives free. He gave the church the tools, he gave the church the authority. I think that the word that you were describing earlier is authority. So he told the church, "These signs will follow those who believe. In my name, they will cast out demons." That is what you described, that authority to make commands.

I believe that as we see more and more people, and more and more believers, more and more churches just embrace this call as part of the gospel -- it is not the whole gospel, but it is a key part of the gospel. And as we see the church embrace this, then we'll see many more people set free. As more people are set free it sets families free, it sets the nation free as we one by one, we see churches embrace it, we see believers embrace it and they get set free. They get established in freedom.

Many times, what I've seen is that once a believer experiences deliverance just like your own story, then you begin to lead other people into deliverance. Once you get set free you want to lead other people into that. So it is like a chain reaction.

JAMES: Would you agree that if our nation does not change direction and stop believing the deceiver and living with the deception of the enemy prevailing in their life, prevailing in our communities, in our cities and states, and in our nation sadly, and all over the world, and we're seeing that right now. But if we will recognize I am hearing sounds, thoughts, and suggestions that are of another source, the deceiver. I'm being deceived. And I can take authority and others can gather with me, and believers can take authority over the lying spirit, over the spirit of vengeance or hate or bitterness and unforgiveness. I can be delivered from that.

Do you believe that the church is the only source and the only force on this earth that can correct the course by exposing the deceiver and the deceiving spirits and telling people to cry out to the Father and to the deliverer to deliver them, and even get someone to agree with them? I believe right now if you're listening and watching us, you can call the prayer line that's there. Do you see that number? And you can say, would you agree with me? I know this has got me. There's a grip here. It is misery. Betty said she had a spirit of fear and I watched God deliver her. She also had a spirit of timidity. She had no self-confidence. And you can see what God has done in her. And this was a part of a deliverance for her.

You can call and say would you agree with me? And they will. They will agree and you rebuke that spirit together. Do you believe that if the church would do what Jesus told us to do, fulfill his commission, cast out demons, tell them where to go, and tell people that they can have help.

We don't have to make it spooky, we don't have to build it up, you can just command just like I commanded those dogs, stop it! He said, "You tell the enemy, you resist like that and you watch what happens." Do you believe we can turn the tide in this country?

JAKE: I do! This is a really pivotal time in this nation like you said. We are, I think, due for a great awakening and revival. I believe that deliverance is going to be a key part of that revival because there is so much torment, there's so much deception, there's so much oppression, there is so much trauma, stuff that people are walking out of. So the church needs to be the answer. The church needs to be equipped. The church is the salt of the earth. And so as the church turns, I believe then the nation can turn. So absolutely.

JAMES: Are you going now and like speaking in different cities and churches? How would people get a hold of you? What address or online, where would they go?

JAKE: Yeah. I'm traveling and speaking. The best way is my website which is just my name, JakeKail.com. So that's the easiest way to find me. Lots of resources and all my events are on there as well. Books.

JAMES: I would like to give everybody that would like to have your book, and it is so well written, it is so clear. It is simple but it is powerful, transforming truth. I would like you to get it.

We help the least of these. Our viewers want to put God's loving arms around the most overlooked people on the planet, the forgotten people, truly the least of these that Jesus talked about. We're right now, we're going to feed the hungry, 350,000 children that we have found in desperate, desperate need. I'm going to ask our viewers to help us feed them.

And if they would like to have your book as a gift, you just do anything you can to help. We have some other gifts to offer you because we always want to bless you. But I know this is important right now in the life of our nation and your life, perhaps in your family and all over the world.

I want you to listen to the son of our mission director who oversaw all of Africa. We've saved millions of lives from starvation. We've given millions of people fresh water. We have set captives free where they were in sexual trafficking. This is what our viewers do.

I want to ask you right now to listen to the son of our mission director, Peter Pretorius, this is Isak. He is talking to mothers in South Sudan, one of the hardest hit, most tormented area on this earth where we have put the arms of God around people because of you. Listen to Isak talking to mothers in the very areas where with your help we're going to save lives. Watch prayerfully.

On the mission field

ISAK: Wow! And this lady, two children. She also has two children. Wow!

[Child crying]

So we're here at one of our clinics in South Sudan in an area called Burma. We've got women that have gathered here at the clinic. We've been talking to them. I asked them a question. I asked them to raise their hand if they had lost a child. I asked them then to indicate with their hand raised on their fingers how many children they had lost. For some of the ladies it was one. Other ladies, a number of them showed two children they'd lost; children that they'd lost just because of food. The question was simply related to food.

That is why when we say to you that there is a food crisis happening here, a food insecurity crisis that is happening here in South Sudan, not just in Burma, we've traveled to multiple villages here. We've spoken to mother after mother. This is a crisis.

But in great times of crisis comes the opportunity to do great things. I want you to know today this is one of those opportunities for good people to do something -- and we have to do something. We have to step into this crisis and we have to do something great. Something above and beyond. Beyond what we would normally do. Why? Because that's what crisis calls for. And this is a crisis of lives -- children's lives.

So I'm asking you from the bottom of my heart today, I'm appealing to you to join hands and hearts with us. You don't have to come to South Sudan. You don't have to be the feet or the hands that make this happen. We'll do that for you. But what we need you to do is we need you to give the very best gift that you can give today because that gift will be a gift of life.

In the studio

JAMES: Dear God, how can we look at a mother that's lost a child, or several, a grandparent, and not care when we can change it? In Jesus' name.

Would you please? We did lose a daughter. Betty, we've lost some grandbabies in miscarriage and one stillborn, and it is just hard to bear. But right there where you saw those mothers, these children are just dying in a continuous stream. And it can be turned around immediately. That's what our viewers do.

BETTY: Absolutely! It is your heart that counts. Let God speak to your heart and show you what he would like you to contribute to helping these precious little ones. They need food, they need love, and they need their mother to provide for them. They can do that through our hearts, through our giving. So please join with us. Let God tell you exactly how much he wants you to help and do it today.

JAMES: You know where we're beginning right now the next emphasis on feeding for the next several weeks; 350,000 hungry children we have found where the missionaries have located the serious situation. But you're the only ones who can give the missionaries and those mission workers the ability to meet their need. That's what we're asking you to do.

Now think about this. $30, $50, or $100 feeds three, five, or ten children. Please think on the upper end. If there is any way that you can feed ten children with $100 would you do it? Some of you could give $1,000 and multiply that by ten. Whatever you can do, please, right now, ask God to lead you.

We have some gifts to send you. We're going to send all of you who just make any gift Setting Captives Free. I think it will be such a blessing to you and the people you care about. It is the only hope for our nation to get free from the deception of the father of lies and these seducing spirits that are putting lies in the minds of people and those lies are prevailing. We've got to set people free.

But if you love God, you're going to reach out to put arms around the least of these. When you notice the least of these, Jesus said you're truly my family, you're my sheep. Would you right now, would you go get your bank card? Would you use it like a check? Call the number, go online. If you want to write a check, make it LIFE. But we want to hear from you. We need to know that we can count on you to help us feed these precious children and their families -- 350,000 of them. Could you help ten? Five? Surely you can help three? Please right now make the best gift you can. You're giving life. That's the greatest gift!

On the mission field

ISAK: South Sudan today is not at war, and yet, there is still a war going on here. The war is to be able to provide the nutrition that children need because there are areas like this where we're engaging with mothers who are telling us how their children are suffering from malnutrition on an ongoing basis. How more than 25 percent of the mothers here are testifying to the fact that they've lost one or more children as a result of malnutrition, and some of them even pure starvation.

That's the war that currently rages here. That's what we've got to continue to be able to impact. We've got to meet the crisis need for food because food is what these families in this area need right now. But if we're not able to feed them while we get there, then many more children's lives will be lost. That's why we ask you to partner with us in direct food response to provide Mission Feeding to these areas because that is what is needed most right now.

So please, just dial that number on your screen right now and give that gift -- give that gift of life. Maybe you want to give online. However you choose to give, you give that way. But I'm just asking you today to give the very best gift because that gift will bring life.

In the studio

JAMES: Thank you so much! Do you realize that you may have given a mother the answer to her greatest hope and prayer? Giving her the life of a child, or maybe several?

Glad to send you the book, Setting Captives Free. Jake and I are going to talk tomorrow. He is going to tell us how you take authority, how you recognize if demonic assault is a problem to you, how you deal with it, and how you can help others deal with it. So don't miss tomorrow.

We have other gifts. You know we always tell you we offer them to bless you and inspire you in your life. Thank you for giving life. That's what we do every day on Life Today. But it is because of our viewers that we're able to share his life and his love so freely. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts. Don't miss tomorrow!
